Other comments:

- I am not aware of any bad behaviour or bullying in school.
- Temple Learning academy is a brilliant school and I'm sure it will only get better as it grows.
- I believe this is a great school and we are glad our daughter did not get her original choice as this school seems even better than where we wanted her to go.
- My friends frequently comment to me about school and how well it is doing.
- This is a fantastic school. My child has really gained in confidence since starting here. The Headmaster and teachers make this a really excellent school.
- TLA and all the staff are doing a great job. I'm really happy my child attends this school.
- Behaviour in school is great – outside it is not.
- The school has only been open since Sept 2015 however I feel it has made so much progress already and believe it is on track to be an outstanding school. The pupils are well behaved, the parents are informed of progress, kept up to date and communication is open. My son is so settled and has learnt a lot. He has grown more and is reading and writing clearly and impressive for someone in reception. The staff are dedicated and seem passionate about their roles and ensure the kids are at the centre of the learning.
